One Primary Purpose

I love my home group. I'm not trying to say it's the best in the world, because my hope is that everyone feels that way about their own home group. But for me, ours is the best.

Our group started in 1998, and our name is Primary Purpose. I feel it truly depicts us and what we are about. Tradition Five long form reminds me that "each Alcoholics Anonymous group ought to be a spiritual entity..." and I truly feel we are.

Quote of the Month

Somebody once said, "As much as you may grow, as many recoveries as there may be, I think the eventual by-products of AA will be greater that AA itself."

-Bill W.

I arrive at my home group an hour before the meeting starts. The room has already been set up and the crew has gone to dinner. There's usually about five or so minutes when I'm there by myself, and I sit and feel the spirit before the "entity" starts and our members begin to trickle in. That's when the place comes alive. I listen to the glad tidings and the laughter. I can smell the coffee. I see the smiles of the regulars and the scared faces of our new friends as they enter.

Tradition Five goes on to say, a...has but one primary purpose—to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers." What is my group's message? I know what my message is, but my group's?

Well the first thing is...Our group is accessible for members using wheelchairs. We post signs so people will know where we're located. We have at least two greeters at our door to welcome people. We have a nice literature area, which includes Grapevine and La Viña and other AA literature. We also have CDs of past speakers and birthday cards for members to sign. We also have a table with AA pamphlets and flyers of upcoming events. At the front of the room are the three window shades: Steps, Traditions and Concepts. We have lots of coffee and donuts, plenty of comfy seats and a spirit in the room that's alive.

If you happen to sit down before our meeting starts, be advised you will continually be approached and welcomed. You might even be invited to meet others.

The meeting starts promptly at 8 p.m. and we all take our seats. We appreciate the quiet respect shown during the readings and our speakers.

During our announcements you'll hear how to get involved with Hospitals & Institutions service. We offer help with getting a sponsor, literature or service commitments. We also announce annual AA birthdays, as well as reports on Grapevine, La Viña, General Service and intergroup. We wrap up at 9:15 with a prayer. Fellowship continues until around 10. Our group's message is one of recovery, unity and service in action. I think I'll keep coming back.

Try this: The next time you visit your home group, pretend you're a newcomer or a visitor.

Ask yourself...What do you see, feel, hear? Is your group contributing to that spiritual entity?

It's a lifeline for many. May that lifeline be strong.

-Debby D. Concord CA.

The Generous Lifelines of Intergroup

"Every A.A. member wants every alcoholic in the world to have the chance he had. Every A.A. member wants unity for our movement. Every A.A. member wants the good opinion of medicine, religion, and the general public. We know we must have these things, or the new man may never get his chance. The Intergroup associations are the best insurance we can have that our lifelines to the hundreds of thousands yet to come will never break or tangle. Let us always be generous. Let us warmly support Intergroup"

From the Twelve Steps And Twelve Traditions

Step 11 - Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood Him, praying only for knowledge of His will for us and the power to carry that out.

PRAYER and meditation are our principal means of conscious contact with God. We A.A.'s are active folk, enjoying the satisfactions of dealing with the realities of life, usually for the first time in our lives, and strenuously trying to help the next alcoholic who comes along. So it isn't surprising that we often tend to slight serious meditation and prayer as something not really necessary. To be sure, we feel it is something that might help us to meet an occasional emergency, but at first many of us are apt to regard it as a somewhat mysterious skill of clergymen, from which we may hope to get a secondhand benefit. Or perhaps we don't believe in these things at all.

Please use the Gratitude With Service form below to volunteer for any of EVI's Standing Committees, such as Special Events, Literature, Unity, or Phone Volunteers.

We always need volunteers for our 12th Step call list. 12th Step work can be very challenging yet spiritually re-

Central Office Manager's Report October 21, 2022

In September it started to cool off, business and weather wise. We received 393 requests for information and assistance during office hours. Of those 100 calls were for meeting info, 96 were office visitors and 15 resulted in a 12-step call. Our website stayed busy with 23,373 visits. And our Google totals for last month were 3,531 views. Of those 432 went to our website, 48 requested directions and 31 gave us a call.Part 2 - ICOAA seminar held September 1 to 5 in Denver CO.

More news from NY - Bob W, our GSO General Manager, reported that AAWS will be producing a first draft of the Big Book in plain language. It is not going to replace the original Big Book but rather is considered a translation like a Big Book in any other language. Much research was done concerning this translation. The target comprehension level for Plain Language is 5 to 6 grade, where as the original book requires a 12 -14 grade level. Per US literacy statistics; Nationwide, on average, 79% of U.S. adults are literate in 2022. 21% of adults in the US are illiterate in 2022. 54% of adults have a literacy below 6th grade level.

We received a memo from Grapevine informing us they will be raising prices on their top 10 selling books by $2.49. The price of their other items will be increased as they go to reprint. That will bring the price of an average Grapevine book to $14.50. We will continue selling at the old price until we have to reorder. Come stock up for the holidays.

Please take some Gratitude with Service forms back to your group and encourage members to volunteer. The life you save may be your own.

In the spirit of Tradition Eight, Love and Service Kim W Central Office Manager, East Valley Intergroup

Tradition Eleven: Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion: we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio, and films.

- 1. Do I sometimes promote AA so fanatically that I make it seem *un*attractive?
- 2. Am I always careful to keep the confidences reposed in me as an AA member?
- 3. Am I careful about throwing AA names around—even within the Fellowship?
  - 4. Am I ashamed of being a recovered, or recovering, alcoholic?
- 5. What would AA be like if we were not guided by the ideas in Tradition Eleven?

  Where would I be?
- 6. Is my AA sobriety attractive enough that a sick drunk would want such a quality for himself?

NO one ever trips over a mountain," my sponsor told me. Or, as the "Twelve and Twelve" attests, the deployed forces in WWII had far fewer relapses than the alcoholics stateside. So it is that most of us in recovery find we can get through big events and crises sober but are sometimes challenged when all seems to be going smoothly.

So it is with holidays, at least for me. In my family, the "big" holidays were Thanksgiving and Christmas. They were not big drinking days. My family was not alcoholic. On the big holidays, there were too many people and too much to do to for me to be able to drink.

But what I thought of as the "minor" holidays were another story. Those three-day weekends were tailor made for drinking. Throughout my sobriety, I have treated those holidays with great respect and made sure to layer them with meetings, fellowship and service.

What prompts this is not an awareness I had during a meeting this past Memorial Day. My last drunk was on a Saturday. My first day sober was Sunday, and the next day was Labor Day. It's taken me almost 20 years to see the humor of my Higher Power in pulling me over in that time frame. What I could never have done myself--interrupt a three-day drunk--my Higher Power did. I have maintained this gift of sobriety a day at a time since 1990.

My first time doing a minor holiday sober was my second day of sobriety! What a miracle! In reflection, I see that surrender was all that was needed. And surrender, relying on God as I understand him, allows me to do life sober on a daily basis.

A day is a day is a day. All days are equal. When I foresee a day or an event as a challenge or risk, what I do does not change, nor need to. All that's required is to take the Third Step and proceed.
