Maybe Next Year | What Now ?

I sobered up in September of 1982. Immediately I began worrying about how I was going to get through Thanksgiving and Christmas with my family, without my reliable crutch of the previous 25 years. Habitually, my father and I would get drunk at holiday get-togethers and end up with hurtful words in both directions. The booze always helped me get through the day.

I especially remember agonizing about my office Christmas party. I always had a great time at this annual event—at which I got totally hammered, of course—and then I could chat, laugh, dance and close out the evening with inappropriate behavior with inappropriate people.

From day one in AA, I attended three meetings a day, beginning with the 7:30 A.M. Mustard Seed meeting—now my home group—just two blocks from my apartment in New York City. One morning at that meeting I voiced my concerns about my office party and the advice I got was, "Don't go this year."

Not go? What? How could I not go? I was the life of the party. "Don't go," they repeated, ignoring my concerns about all the questions I would get from my drinking buddies at work. I didn't want my coworkers to know that I was in AA, at least not yet.

When December arrived, Sally, our office secretary, started making the rounds at work, clipboard in hand, asking "Will you be coming to the Christmas party? Bringing a guest?" I had my fictional story all prepared. Instead of going to the office party, I would be going to a family event that I simply couldn't get out of. So I said, "No, I won't be able to make it this year, because..."

Sally cut me off. "OK, maybe next year," she said and moved on to the next desk. Sally didn't urge me to attend. She didn't say, "Why not?" or "But you have to come!" The good news was that I didn't have to lie my way through an invented excuse. The bad news was that she couldn't care less whether I came to the party. I was crushed. What a lesson in humility.

As reality set in, I had more lessons like this both at work and at home. I was not the star of anyone's team. I was not chosen for the employee-of-the-year award. I was not everyone's favorite. In the end, I stayed sober and life got easier and easier as I settled into just being "another bozo on the bus." Thanks again AA, for another eye-opening life lesson!

God Was Not On My Radar

God was not on my radar when I was first introduced to Alcoholics Anonymous. In fact, I was quite blindsided by the whole concept. That first introduction to AA was through the reading of the Big Book for a book report I had to write while in treatment. It was very difficult for me, and I almost couldn't finish reading the book. I didn't even want to hold it and I expressed my dislike for it to my wife on many occasions. At the time I was so adamantly against organized religion that even the term "God" was very distasteful to me and I wouldn't even say it. Little did I know that religion doesn't have anything to do with it. I was not able to grasp the idea of my own conception of God.

Eventually, after 45 days sober, I was invited to attend my first AA meeting by another patient. I have not seen that man since those early days, but I am grateful he encouraged me to take the first step onto this path. I hated every second of it. I was terrified. First in the door, don't talk to me and first out the door as soon as I could bolt. But I heard something that first meeting and subsequent others: "Set aside everything you believe and just keep coming back."

That's all I could do at the time. I put my fear aside and asked someone if they would sponsor me. He gave me what was probably one of the best exercises I did early on in the book. He had me read "We Agnostics" and write down for each sentence whether I felt it was true or false or if I could answer yes or no to the sentences in that chapter. When I was finished, I had a very long list of True and Yes answers. And a voice inside me said: "What if I am wrong?" This was an eye-opening moment for me, and I wish I could say that it changed everything right away, but that wasn't the case. I was not able to finish the Steps with my sponsor as he moved away.

My second sponsor wanted me to memorize some prayers and I refused. I refused to meditate and pray. I refused all those pieces of the program. And I paid for that. Time passed and I although I hadn't had a drink in nearly two years, I was dying inside. The pain of my day to day existence was excruciating. Restless, irritable, and discontent described me to a tee. This is where I believe it was my service commitments that were keeping me sober because I could always get out of me by diving into that work. I had failed at so many other areas of life and my pride wasn't going to allow me to add another failure to the list.

From the book Alcoholics Anonymous | pg. 366

"He suggested that for me a good starting point would simply be recognition of the fact that I had failed in running the world—in short, acceptance of the fact that I was not God. He also suggested that I might try occasionally to act as if I believed. Somewhere I had heard that it is easier to act yourself into a new way of thinking than to think yourself into a new way of acting, and this made sense in the context of "acting as if."

Things we cannot change.

Tom P. A long time member of our fellowship and an inspiration to many has passed from this world. His life was well lived and enriched many others.

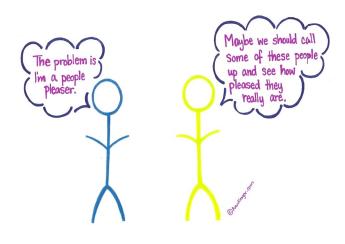

May all your troubles last as long as your New Year resolutions.

Dear God, my prayer for 2020 is a fat bank account and a thin body. Please don't mix it up like you did this year.

Many things can be preserved in alcohol this New Years Eve, but dignity is not one of them.

It's officially New Year's Eve, you only have a couple of hours to do all the things you will resolve not to do in the new year.

I have only one resolution. To rediscover the difference between wants and needs. May I have all I need and want all I have. Happy New Year!

Central Office Manager's Report December 15, 2023

We received 380 requests for information and assistance in November. Of those 107 calls were for meeting info, 105 were office visitors and 12 resulted in a good old fashioned 12 step call. Our website stayed busy with 17,034 visits. And our Google totals for last month were 2,117 views. Of those 283 went to our website, 51 requested directions and 24 gave us a call. We cleaned up the storage room to create more room for the Events Committee. We have a few items to pass on if anyone wants them. There is a meeting sign and a very nice white board set.

Literature orders have been received from both AAWS and Grapevine. We have a complete selection of all AA produced literature, including the new Grapevine books, for your holiday needs. Please support your local Intergroup by purchasing A.A. produced literature from local A.A. sources. We are your most affordable source for A.A. literature.

The 2023 Holiday Event Schedule has been completed, to the best of our knowledge. Just a reminder that one of the main functions of a local service office is to be a source of information for the local fellowship. We try our best to keep everyone informed but we only know what we are told. If you are planning an event or special meeting, please let you Central Office know so, in the spirit of unity and fellowship, we can help spread the word.

I called the IRS for a status of our ERC filing. Spoke with a very helpful gentleman who verified that our application has been received and has gone thru a preliminary review. He said final approvals are taking up to a year or more due to the volume of backlogged applications in their system. I let him know that if they were to find anything at all questionable in our filing that we would want to withdraw our application immediately. He said that would not be a problem and put a note in our file that we want to be certain of our eligibility.

We still have several openings in the office for regular slots or fill-ins. Please discuss with your group all the service opportunities that are available thru your East Valley Intergroup. Answer the A.A. hotline, go on an old fashioned 12 step call, take a meeting to a home bound member, share information about A.A. with the public and professional community, help put on an event, print and fold directories and newsletters or take a shift at the office. These are just a few of the services we provide and it takes hundreds of volunteers. The life you save may be your own.

Tradition One

" Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends upon A.A. unity."

"THE unity of Alcoholics Anonymous is the most cherished quality our Society has. Our lives, the lives of all to come, depend squarely upon it. We stay whole, or A.A. dies. Without unity, the heart of A.A. would cease to beat; our world arteries would no longer carry the life-giving grace of God; His gift to us would be spent aimlessly. Back again in their caves, alcoholics would reproach us and say, "What a great thing A.A. might have been! "

Kim called the IRS for status on our ERC filing. Spoke with a very helpful gentleman who verified that our application has been received and has gone thru a preliminary review. He said final approvals are taking up to a year or more. She let him know that if they were to find anything questionable in our filing that we would want to withdraw our application immediately. He said that would not be a problem and put a note in our file that we want to be certain of our eligibility.

We have several openings in the office for regular slots or fill-ins. Great service opportunities available - spread the word.

Old Business

Elect Secretary for 2024/2025 - no nominations

2024 Budget - postponed from November. There was a question on employee travel expenses for 2023, answer was those expenses were submitted after this budget proposal was created.

Vote was: 30 yes 4 no. After minority opinion, a member reconsidered their vote. Went back to the floor for discussion. 2nd Vote was: 28 yes 7 no. Needed 24 votes to pass by substantial unanimity. Motion passed.

Motion for Intergroup to do an Inventory -no discussion. Vote was 31 yes 4 no. Motion passed. No minority opinion.

Motion to pass on 15% discount on last literature purchase from GSO. This was a written motion submitted by Richard E. after the meeting last month. LeAnn W.. 2nd the motion. C.J. asked if this was what we normally do - answer was no. Lois said that there is no way to keep track the cost of books when selling them - all books are stored together from different orders so this motion is not feasable. We offered a discount a couple years ago when the office was flush with money and wanted to pass on a discount to the groups, but we are not flush right now. Eddie said Prudent Reserve is down right now - not the time to have a sale. Reps will take this back to their groups to vote on it next month.

New Business

Ryan R. commented that he suggested 2 months ago that we publish the H&I financials in our No Booze News and we have not done that. J noted that we are not connected to H&I and it is not our business to publish their financials - they are a separate entity. Another member thought we should publish this as well.

Ken commented that the groups can go to www.vwhi.org to see all the H&I reports at any time.

Announcements

Roxanne is our incoming Chair and could use some help with the audio equipment for the monthly meetings.

8:15pm Tom made a motion to close, Multiple people 2nd the motion. Closed with the Responsibility Declaration.

Thank you for allowing me to be of service,

Lois L EVI Secretary

God Was Not On My Radar... | continued from pg. 2

As I approached three years without a drink, I made another sponsor change to the sponsor I have today and worked the Steps again. He took me through the Big Book one page at a time and shared his experience with me. I so very much wanted what he had. Yet I still refused to pray and continued to suffer. There were bits of relief here and there as we progressed. I always told the truth in my prior inventories, but I wasn't rigorously honest. Pride kept me from admitting to God and another human being the exact nature of my wrongs. I would only tell you the parts that I felt safe telling because I was a coward. I finally got up enough courage and let it all out. I was able to get free of things that I didn't even know were killing me that I wasn't willing to tell in prior 5th Steps. This was very freeing for me, but I was still not letting God be a part of that.

Things continued like that and the pain in the life I was living got to be too much. I surrendered. My way wasn't working. One day at about four years sober I fell to my knees and just started reading the Third Step prayer straight out of the book because I didn't know what else to do. The voices in my head would tell me that it was ridiculous and useless and for the weak and on and on and on. But I continued, because I saw that it worked in others and I had tried everything else. I remember a few weeks later after my prayers a feeling came over me like no other. The voices were silent. It was a powerful experience. And the voices have not returned.

I am so very grateful that I found a power greater than myself whom today I choose to call God. That choice is a subtle reminder to continue to be open minded and not to hold onto old ideas. A reminder that pride and arrogance have no place in my life. That every idea up to this point is an old idea and I need to always be open minded and willing to consider new ideas. My experience has been that if I keep seeking to improve my conscious contact through prayer and meditation on a daily basis my life improves. The act of seeking and the work that it takes has a benefit that I never dreamed of. I get to be happy. I get to be joyous. I get to be free. I get to have peace. I get to have serenity. I get to have a life that I could not have ever dreamed possible. That is not something that I thought could or would ever happen. B.L.
